

1. The first group of people who are interested in the study of the history of the world are the historians. They are people who study the past and write about it. They are interested in the events that have shaped the world and the people who have lived through them. They use a variety of sources to gather information, including books, documents, and artifacts. They then analyze this information and write books or articles about it. Some historians focus on a specific time period or event, while others focus on a specific region or people. Some historians are more interested in the political and social aspects of history, while others are more interested in the cultural and intellectual aspects. There are many different types of historians, and each has their own special interests and methods.
